

Reflection

208 A: Community Engagement

The community engagement practical under B.Ed course (208 A) was meaningful learning experience that connected classroom knowledge with community service.

Through the cleanliness drive we promoted hygiene, sanitation and environmental awareness while developing teamwork, leadership and communication skills.

The practical was educational, useful and beneficial for our personal and professional development as future teachers.